Local Representatives Offer 65 Insurance Praised By Governor

Richmond, Va. — Governors of both states have commended the Virginia - North Carolina 65 Health Insurance Association for its efforts to provide medical care protection for persons 65 and older.

Their support was expressed at a luncheon here marking the start of an open enrollment period, during which eligible persons may get the special health insurance without medical examination or lengthy health questionnires. The enrollment period runs through May 20.

Dr. Ennion S. Williams, of Richmond, association president, thanked the chief executives and the legislatures of the two states for enactment of special laws to permit the plan.

Governor Alberbis Harrison has commended the insurance industry, and described the plan as an example of "free enterprise at its finest."

This is a plan of health insurance, offered without medical examination at reasonable rates by a voluntary association of more than 50 insurance companies doing business in the two states. These include J. A. Burke & Co.; J. L. Hunt P. Hamiller, Co tin; James R. Richardson; J. T. J. C. Womack. Special enacted by the Virginia North Carolina legislatures permit companies to permit the plan, on the theory that what a single company would find impossible

About 90,000 cancer patients will probably die in 1964 who might have been saved by earlier diagnosis and prompt treatment. The American Cancer Society seeks to save this unnecessary loss of life through public and professional education and service to patients. It needs your support to carry on this life-saving work.

Church News

The Sunday School lesson for this Sunday will be in the 10th chapter of Acts The subject will be the Conversion of Cornelius. The message for the morning service will be entitled "The True Virtues of a Godly mother." At this time the church will present flowers to the following people: (1) the oldest mother; (2) the youngest mother, and (3) the mother with the most children present.

The topic for the evening service will be entitled "The Mighty Angel and the little book." This will be found in the 10th chapter of the book of Revelation, which is one of a series of messages from this great propetic book.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.
